Convention 1. Let $x = y$ stand for x is equal to y.

Convention 2. Let $x \neq y$ stand for x is not equal to y.

Convention 3. Let x and y agree stand for $x = y$. Let x agrees with y stand for $x = y$.

Convention 4. Let x and y are distinct stand for $x \neq y$.